

Principle 7: Collaboration

Services are committed to actively engaging with the local service ecology and improving the outcomes of victim-survivors, including children, through coordination, collaboration and integration that provides continuity of care.

Effective practices for service delivery coordination in Indigenous communities

Understanding and responding to family violence risks to children: Evidence-based risk assessment for children and the importance of gender

Research paper by Kate Esther Fitz-Gibbon, Jane Maree Maher, Judith McCulloch and Marie Therese Segrave

Code of Practice: Principles and Standards for Specialist Family Violence Services for Victim-Survivors

Safe and Equal's Code of Practice - Victoria